ABOUT FACES OF WAR

Jerry Robinov

Community Counseling Center, in partnership with the University of New England, will honor the service of thousands of veterans by hosting an opening night reception for the prolific photographic essay Exhibition Faces of War, at the UNE Art Gallery in Portland. This evening will raise funds for Community Counseling Center's services for veterans and their families, and will also serve as a remembrance of the Exhibition's creator, Jerry Robinov, a noted Maine photographer who passed away in August.

Faces of War captures portraits of veterans from the Iraq and Afghanistan conflicts who have made incredible sacrifices in order to give back to their country during times of war. Each portrait will be accompanied by an essay describing service and sacrifice written by the veteran.

Faces of War will be displayed at the University of New England Art Gallery from November 11th - February 12th, and can be viewed on Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays from 1:00pm - 4:00pm, Thursdays from 1:00pm - 7:00pm, and by appointment.
