

Ministering to Those Affected by War

presented by LTC Peter Bauer

LOCATIONS & DATES

Thursday, October 14

6:30pm-8pm

University New England
Ludcke Auditorium
716 Stevens Rd, Portland

Friday, October 15

6:30pm-8pm

University College of Bangor
Eastport Bldg, Room 124
1 University Dr., Bangor

Shows how Faith Communities can provide vital support to military members and their families as they face difficult adjustments due to deployments. Come and hear how your Faith Community can help by learning about the spiritual maladies and soul wounds of war, as well as learning how to create "Circles of Care."

About The Presenter:

LTC Peter E. Bauer, LCSW, LMFT,

Army Reserve Medical Service Corps Officer, currently on active duty, and serving as the Chief Of The Marriage And Family Therapy Program, Department Of Social Work, Carl R. Darnall Army Medical Center, Fort Hood, TX. Peter is ordained as a United Church Of Christ clergy and a former Navy Chaplain.

This event is sponsored by Maine Military Community Network (MMCN)

For further information contact:

Maine Army National Guard (Augusta) Chaplains

Val Vigue at 207.430.5899 or Earl Weigelt at 207.430.5898

Maine Air National Guard (Bangor) Chaplain Rick Bach at 207.990.7242

Dr. Gretchen Breyler Hegeman at 207.205.7841